Thank you for providing us with an image for the Outside Front cover of Green Chemistry.

1. We would like you to confirm that you would like us to use this image on the Outside Front cover of an issue of Green Chemistry (including hard copy and digital formats). We may need to edit or adapt this image to suit the purpose of the intended use, but this would be subject to your approval (or that of the copyright owner/agent if appropriate). We may also use this image in promotional literature (both hard copy and digital) for Green Chemistry and for other RSC publicity purposes, including on the RSC's websites. 2. We occasionally receive requests from third parties who would like to use cover images from Chemistry in connection with the publication and production of, publicity for and distribution of RSC products and services. If you have no objection to the RSC granting such permissions for your image, and if you have the right to grant us this right, please sign statement 2 below.

Payment of the fee of £1000 is required, plus applicable tax. An invoice will be sent to you in due course.

Description of the image: The cover shows two traces belonging to technologies based on fossil (pink) and renewable (green) sources. At a certain point in time the traces cross, marked with the pin, enabling the environmental and economic (ee) benefits of the renewable route to align.
